• Your grade will be based on your performance in this class only.

• No attendance will be taken unless required by the university or some other authority. If a conflict arises where you know you will be absent, make arrangements with the instructor, or a classmate, ahead of time. If you are unexpectedly forced to miss class, on a case by case basis with proper documentation assistance may be available.

• There will be NO makeup exams given. If an unavoidable event arises and causes you to miss, or anticipate missing an exam, please come and see the instructor. Bring any formal documentation that supports the absence. You must have some written form validating your absence, for example a doctor’s receipt. At that time it will be totally up to the instructor’s discretion to decide if any credit can be gained for the missed exam.

• Do not be late for exams. You will have only the normal class time for your exams.

• You will not be allowed to start an exam more than 10 min late, nor are you allowed to hand in your exam and leave the classroom during the first 10 min of the class.

• Cheating will not be tolerated according to the University rules. The University of Florida Honor Code states: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” As such, cheating of any kind will not be tolerated. The first case of academic dishonesty will receive a grade of zero for the assignment or exam. A second offense will result in a report to the appropriate student body.
