Fall 2015

Course Meeting Times: (Period 3 MWF: 9:35–10:25 AM)

Instructor: Matthew G. McKay, Department of Geography

*IMPORTANT NOTE: This course will fulfill the University of Florida’s Writing and Math Requirement (formerly Gordon Rule), as it means that students in this course are required to write at least 6,000 words in assignments throughout the semester.

For more information on the Writing and Math Requirement (Gordon Rule), please examine the following link at the Office of the Registrar: http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/soc/201308/gord.html

KEY LANGUAGE INCLUDED IN ABOVE LINK (Last accessed August 23, 2015):

“The writing in such courses will be evaluated on content, organization and coherence, argument and support, style and mechanics. Evaluations will be on individual work and the evaluated work will be returned prior to the last day of class…” AND:

“Writing course grades have two components. Professors will indicate whether or not students met the writing requirement AND will assign a course grade. Therefore, to receive writing credits students must receive a minimum grade of 'C' (2.0) AND satisfactory completion of the writing component. It IS possible not to meet the writing requirement and still pass the class. Students should review their degree audits after receiving their grades to verify receipt of credit for the writing component.” (EMPHASIS MINE)

University Catalog Description of Course:

“Contemporary perspectives, themes and research in economic geography, focusing on issues and problems associated with regional and global economic and demographic change. Regional variations and disparities in growth and development are analyzed and policy implications discussed.” (Source: University of Florida Undergraduate Catalog 2015-16, https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/courses/descriptions/geography.aspx).

Course Description:

The discipline of geography includes two main branches --physical and human, and this course focuses exclusively on the latter. This course essentially is one in economic geography but with an overarching focus on contemporary issues and debates about global and regional economic integration. Variations with respect to economic growth and development, as well as issues pertaining to demographics, will be addressed. Topics for discussion include debates about globalization, reasons for uneven development, and studying such issues within the developed and the developing world. This course will utilize lecture format, class discussion, videos, and guest lectures (when possible) for instructional purposes.

OBJECTIVE:

COURSE OUTCOMES: At the completion of this course, students should be able to:
1). develop an understanding of concepts and issues related to globalization, uneven economic development, and global production networks; 2) develop an understanding of how increasing globalization of our world today affects developed and developing economies; and 3) develop the ability to critically analyze current issues related to economic geography.
REQUIRED TEXT:

RECOMMENDED TEXT:

This particular text will provide students the opportunity to make better connections to issues in Economic Geography by providing a background and/or refresher in Economics, particularly when comparing the economically advanced developed world in contrast to the developing countries, often referred to as the “Global South.” This particular text is highly recommended if a student has not taken an undergraduate course in Economics. Nonetheless, this book is useful even if one is already an Economics major. It is available at retail establishments such as Barnes and Noble, Amazon.com, etc.

SUPPLEMENTAL READINGS: The instructor will submit additional readings digitally or in hard copy as deemed necessary throughout the semester to reinforce the learning objectives. Please check E-Learning (Canvas) periodically for updates in this regard.

GRADING:

1) Attendance and Participation: 10%
2) 3 Article Reaction Papers: 30% (10% each)
3) Two Film Reviews: 20% (10% each)
4) Exam: 15%
5) Research Paper: 25%

100% - TOTAL COURSE EVALUATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:

Regular classroom attendance and participation are key components of student success; however, for full credit toward attendance and participation, students are expected to be at every class meeting throughout the entire class session, and must not be reading other materials (including laptop computers, tablets, cell phones, etc.). Participation entails responding to questions directed by the instructor and by participating in peer-initiated discussions as well.
THREE ARTICLE REACTION PAPERS:

Each article reaction paper will be based on a periodical/journal article on a topic related to the course content and you are required to write a summary of and a reaction to each article. These short papers are to be approximately 750 words each (12-point font, Times New Roman, double-spaced, 1-inch margins). The three papers are worth 30% (10% for each exercise) of your final grade for the course. The objective of these papers is to hone critical thinking skills through a written analysis of assigned materials. Papers are to be submitted at the beginning of class on the date that they are due. Late papers will have grades reduced by five points per day that they are late. For example, if a paper is submitted three days after it is due, and one would have otherwise earned a 100 percent score, the grade will be reduced to an 85 percent.

FILM REVIEWS:

Two films will be shown during the semester, which both relate to globalization that has spatial implications. The film reviews will require a written summary and answers to a set of questions, and will be due one week after the conclusion of each film, respectively. Late papers will have grades reduced by five points per day that they are late.

EXAM:

The midterm exam will include material from the beginning of the semester to the class immediately preceding the exam date.

RESEARCH PAPER/PROJECT:

Students will be writing an empirical, theoretical, or expository research paper on an instructor approved topic that relates to Globalization or Regional Economic Integration. The term paper is to be approximately 9 pages (2,500 words) of text (12-point font, Times New Roman, double-spaced, 1" margins). The research project will be evaluated on the following criteria: (a) clarity in grammar and style; (b) the clarity and structure of the argument and presentation thereof; and (c) the effort put forth in researching the material, as indicated through the number and quality of sources. There is no minimum number of sources required, though it is important to include several SCHOLARLY sources, which entail peer-reviewed journal articles, monographs, and other texts that are academic by their nature. Use of Internet sites and periodicals should be kept to a minimum, and a paper with few scholarly sources will have points deducted accordingly. The research paper will consist of the following components, which should be utilized as a checklist for organizational purposes.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Part 1:</th>
<th>Topic: outline and purpose statement</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Part 2:</td>
<td>Completed paper (2,500 word minimum)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

While there is a length requirement for your paper, remember that quality is more important than quantity. Papers must have an introduction, main body, and conclusion. Papers must also relate to Globalization or Economic Integration from a Geographical perspective, insofar that a topic of interest includes a spatial component, meaning that it addresses, place, space, location, or scale. Late papers will have grades reduced by five points per day that they are late.
FINAL GRADES WILL BE ASSIGNED AS follows:

<tr>

<td>94.0-100</td>

NO CLASSES: Monday, September 7: Labor Day; November 6: Homecoming; Wednesday, November 11: Veterans’ Day; November 25 & 27: Thanksgiving Break

LAST DAY OF CLASS: Wednesday, December 9

GRADING POLICY: This course will adhere to the University of Florida’s policies on grading, as found at the following Web link.

https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx

MAKE-UP EXAM POLICY: A penalty of 15 points will be assessed to a missed exam without a confirmed excuse (i.e., documented verification provided by a certified professional such as a physician, confirmation by Student Health Care Services or the Counseling and Wellness Center, etc.). Exams not made up will automatically be given a grade of E. NOTE: A missed final exam equals an E in the course. What that means is not submitting the final paper when it is due will result in failure for the course.

FIVE CONFIRMED EXCUSES FOR MISSING AN EXAM:

1) Illness: I will need to see a physician’s (i.e., doctor’s) note and receive emailed notification of your absence. This note does not need to violate your privacy, however, it does need to indicate that you were treated by a medical professional who can attest to your need to miss class during an examination or that would preclude you from taking such an exam when scheduled. Documentation must include information that verifies the number of days away from class that you need(ed) due to illness.

2) Wake/Funeral/Memorial Service Attendance: I will need proof of attendance with the date of the ceremony listed clearly in writing.

3) Mandatory courtroom appearance: This can be for a criminal or civil summons, or it may be for mere jury duty. However, I will need a copy of your official court summons with the date of attendance clearly listed.

4) UF Athletic or Performance participation: I will need appropriate documentation IN ADVANCE.

5) Military service assignments: I will need proper documentation and it is a courtesy to the instructor to provide this information in advance.
ATTENDANCE POLICY:

This is not a correspondence course and thus your physical presence in the classroom is required. You are expected to attend class regularly, and as such, I will take attendance every class session to get to know everyone’s name and to learn more about the students. Punctuality and regular attendance are essential components toward student success (given the amount of material discussed during class time), however, you are responsible for all the material covered in class, whether you are present or absent.

NOTE: Please see the following link for more information on attendance, as this course will adhere to the University of Florida’s regulations in this regard.

https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

NOTE ON ATTENDANCE: 3 or fewer absences: 2 points added to final grade (includes being present, not disrupting class with use of ANY electronic devices or by doing other reading/work, and participation in discussion as necessary)

Excessive absences: After 5 absences, one point will be deducted from the final grade for each unexcused absence, so plan your schedule accordingly – utilize your time wisely.

ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: If you need course adaptations or accommodations due to a documented disability, if you have emergency medical information that you need to share with me, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible.

If students need classroom adaptations/accommodations, then they must begin the process by registering with the Dean of Students Office.

Additionally, please see the Disability Resource Center for arrangements in this regard (if you have not done so already) in 0001 Building 0020 (Reid Hall).

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT CITATIONS AND REFERENCES:

Using others’ words, ideas, images, graphics, illustrations, maps, diagrams or other intellectual property requires proper citations and documentation. POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC HONESTY:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “(W)e, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

OTHER COURSE POLICY ISSUES:

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE:

University classrooms are professional environments and you are expected and required to act accordingly. Class attendance and participation is more than a mere physical presence in the classroom – it means the following rules are expected and required: no reading of novels, magazines, newspapers, notebooks, or anything else during class. Playing of games, passing notes, having side conversations with neighbors, or using laptops are not permitted. ABSOLUTELY NO TEXT MESSAGING DURING CLASS TIME! You should set your cell phones to mute or vibrate and put them away for class (unless there is an extenuating circumstance that would require it, but please notify me accordingly IN ADVANCE as a courtesy). Lastly, it is okay to disagree with others about their opinions, but please show due respect accordingly. You are all in this together and my job is to best facilitate the learning environment equally amongst all students. The instructor reserves the right to stop class at any time to halt disruptive behavior (such as texting or completing work not for this course) and if necessary, to ask that student to leave the class session if disruptions continue.

CLASS CANCELLATION:

In the event that the university is closed due to inclement weather or for some other unforeseen circumstance, then that class meeting’s itinerary is moved to the next scheduled class session. However, it is your responsibility to keep up-to-date with any changes that might occur with adjustments to the class schedule and with respect to due dates.

THE INSTRUCTOR RESERVES THE RIGHT TO ALTER OR MODIFY THE CONTENT COVERED AND THE SCHEDULE FOR DUE DATES AT ANY TIME DURING THE SEMESTER.

I look forward to working with you all this semester. Good luck, learn geography, and have fun in this class too! Much of your education is what you make of it, so do your part to make the best of this experience while you earn credits toward your university degree. Have a great semester!

IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH YOUR PROGRESS DURING THE SEMESTER, PLEASE SEE ME AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE. PLEASE DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE END OF THE SEMESTER TO ADDRESS CONCERNS. ADDITIONALLY, IF ENGLISH IS NOT YOUR FIRST LANGUAGE AND THIS MAY PRESENT A PROBLEM IN YOUR COMMUNICATING IN WRITING IN THIS COURSE, PLEASE SEE ME AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO ASSIST YOU WITH MOVING FORWARD. WELCOME TO “GLOBAL AND REGIONAL ECONOMIES”! I LOOK FORWARD TO BEING YOUR INSTRUCTOR!
