

Florida Society of Geographers Meeting Announcement and Call for Papers

When: February 21-23, 2025

Where Held: University of Florida-Geography Department 3rd floor Turlington Hall (Conference) and Reitz Union Arredondo Room (Banquet), Gainesville FL

Who should attend: Geographers, Planners, GIS specialists, Environmentalists, Teachers, others

What to do:

- Become a Member: <https://floridasocietyofgeographers.org/>
- $15 for students, $25 for others (non-students/professionals)

General Schedule:

- Friday, Feb 21: Reception: Turlington Hall, 6-8 PM
- Saturday, Feb 22:
 - Paper and poster sessions Turlington 3rd Floor, 3012 and 3018
 - Lunch provided between morning and afternoon sessions on-site
 - Activities in mid-to-late afternoon (depends on number of submissions)
 - Banquet 6:30 to 9:30 PM, Arredondo Room, Reitz Union
- Sunday, Feb 23: Business meeting: Tentatively, Turlington Hall 3018, 9:30 -11 AM (all welcome)

Registration

- Early registration (until January 10): Students: $60, Professionals: $90
- Late registration (on or after January 11): Students: $80, Professionals: $110

Paper and poster submissions

- Titles and abstracts due by January 10, 2024
- Submit abstracts and payment through the links on the FSG website (Paypal and other)

Where to Stay: To reduce overall costs and accommodate people with different budgets, we encourage people to book where they wish. We have a list of several quality hotels within two miles of campus on the FSG website. We highly recommend that you book early as rates often increase as hotels reach capacity.